The class went on a fun trip.

The kids in the class went to the river bank.

They saw a crab on the bank in the grass.

Scott said, “I spot a fish!”.

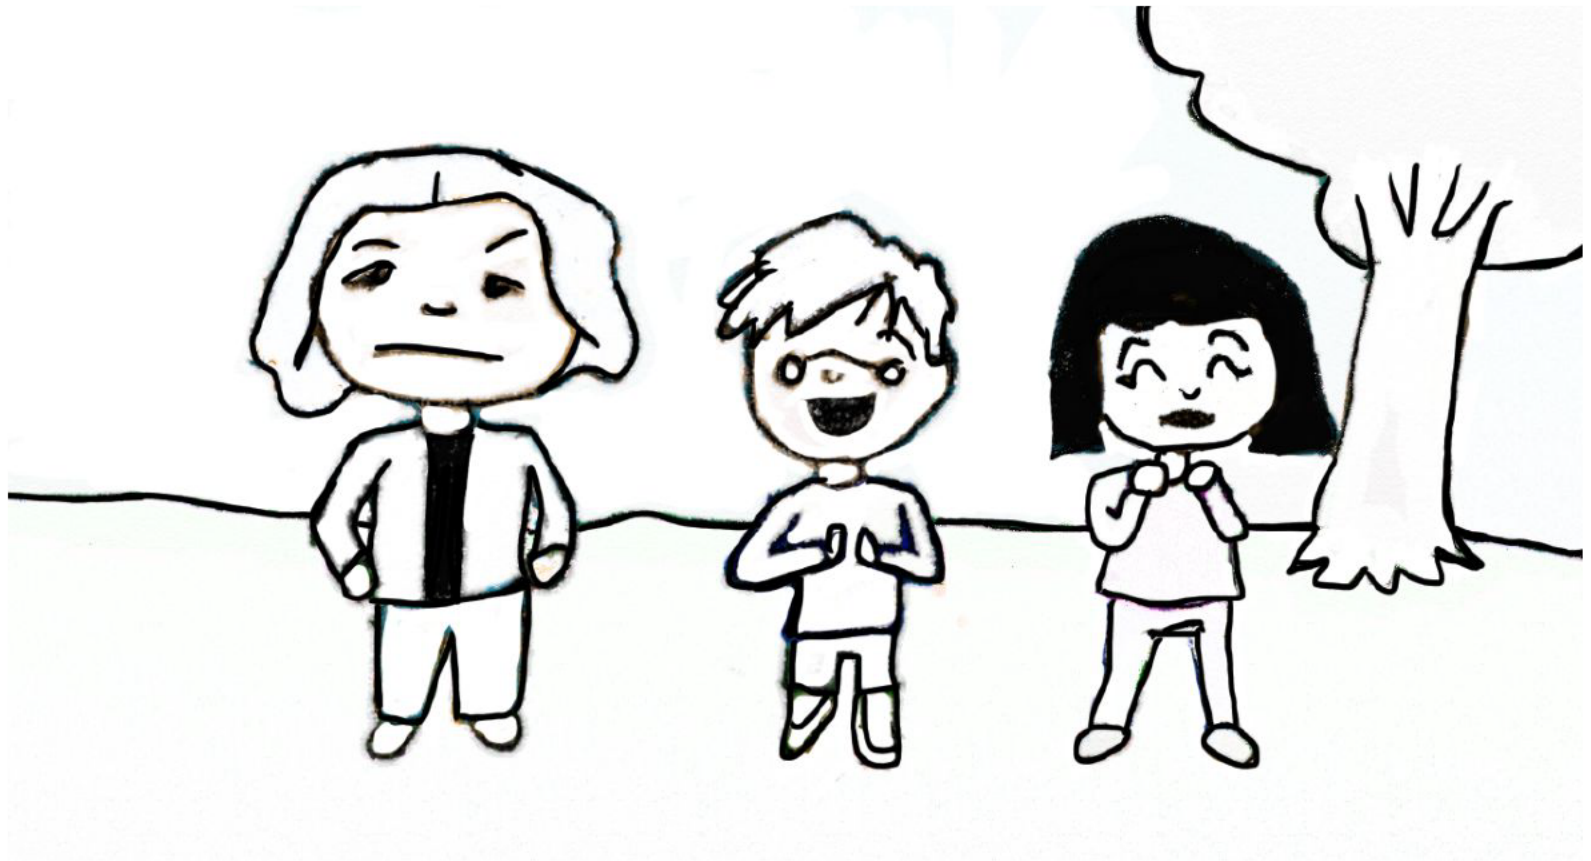

He got wet in the grass with his flip flops.

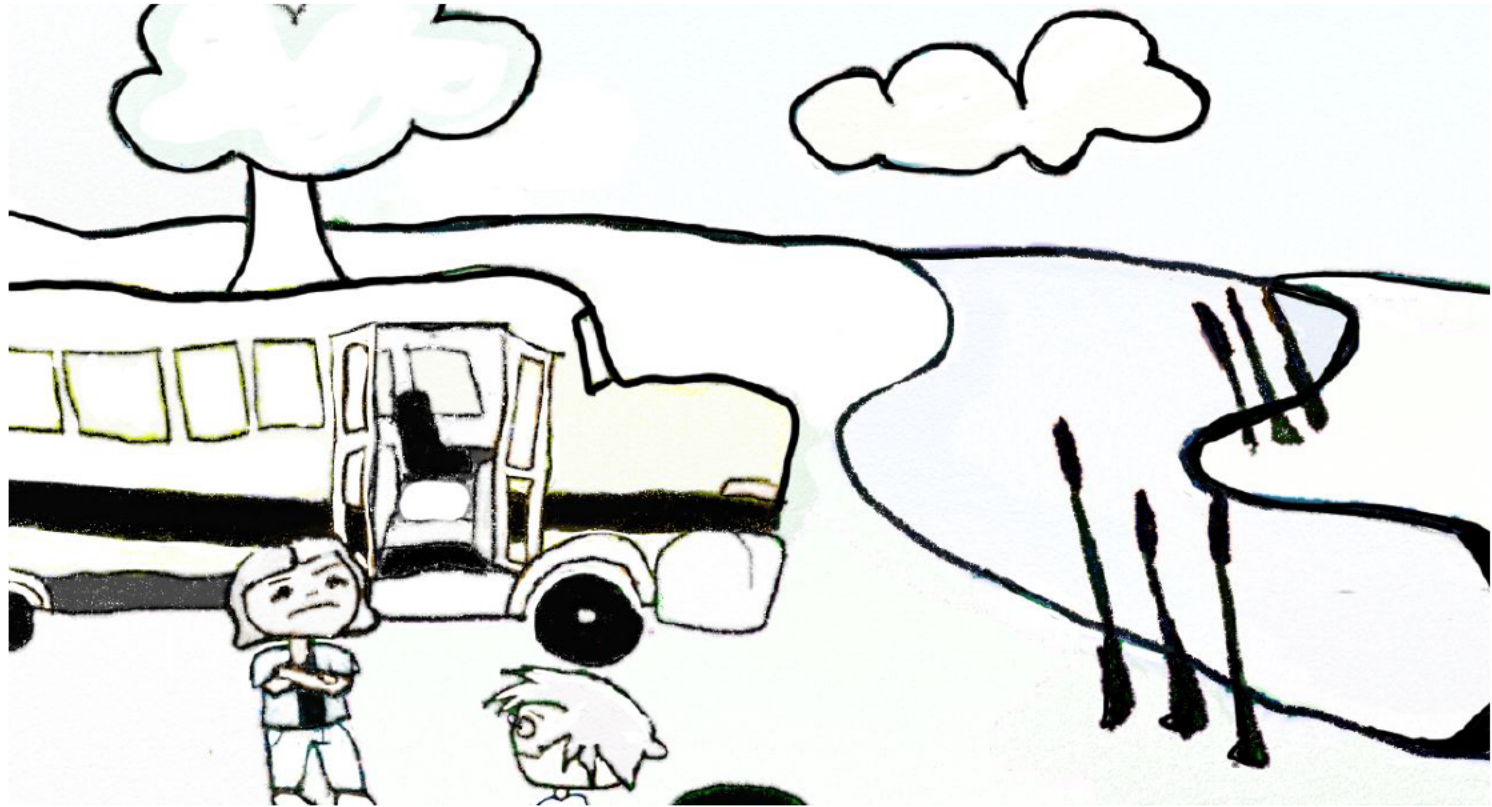

The kids went to a spot on the bank to swim.

The grown-up on the trip said “No!”,
but Tran went in with a flip.

There were lots of claps from the kids.

But then they were glum when they had to get back on the bus.
