

A Great Day!

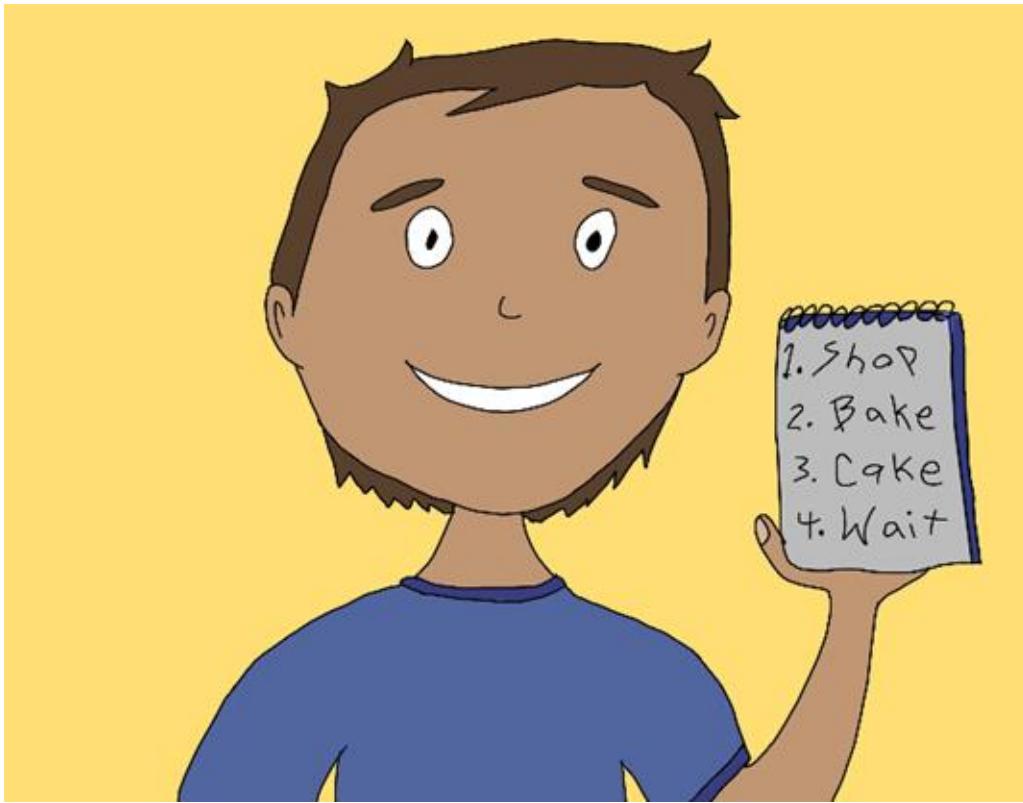

By Teresa Taylor

It was the eighth of May.

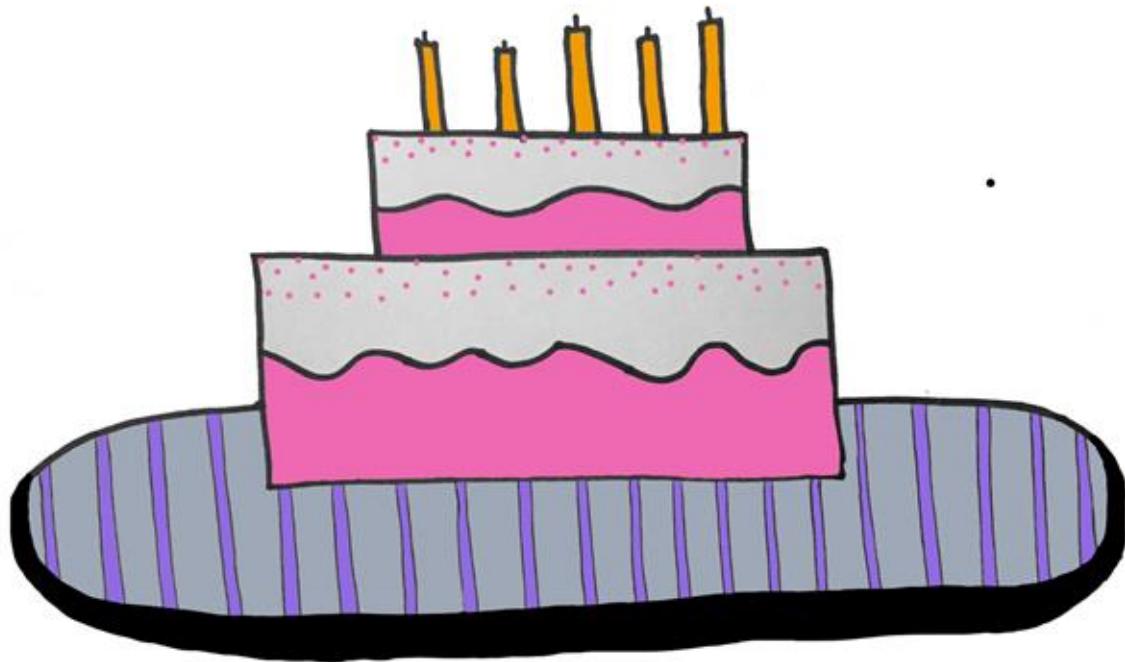

The date Joe had waited for.

He worked hard and made a great plan for the day.

First, Joe made a cake from scratch.
He baked the cake on a tray.

Next, he placed the cake on a plate to frost.

Then he lay on the couch to wait for his mom.

Birthday!” he sang.

With a grin on her face, Joe's mom gave him a big hug.

She tasted the cake. “It is great!”
she said.
